Dear Josh

Your letter made us very happy. We do hope that we shall get a chance to see you in Copenhagen.

We are going to Prague for a symposium where both of us are giving invited talks. We were supposed to return on Sept. 11 in the evening, but we have now changed our return schedule and we will arrive in Copenhagen on Sept. 10 early in the morning. Therefore we are at your disposal from Sept. 10.

As you probably already know, we have moved to a larger house and have now a rather comfortable guest room which we hope that you will use.

We hope that you can fit in Copenhagen in your itinerary and we also hope that you will drop us a note on the exact time of your arrival, if possible in time before our departure for Prague on Sept. 3 very early in the morning. If this is not possible, please send a card from Stockholm which we can read immediately after our return.

Looking forward to seeing you with the very best wishes to Esther
